

Choose Your Crew: How Many Hands on Deck?

Read over the following scenarios and decide what you think is your best option for accomplishing the task. Think through the positives and negatives of your choices before you decide. You may choose between one of the following: solo, yourself & one other person, a small group, a large group. If you choose yourself and one other person, make sure you say who you'd choose. Once you make your choice, briefly describe why you made that choice and one positive and negative to that choice.

1. It's your birthday and your parents have told you that you can throw a party with a $500 budget. Who's planning the party?

Who?

Why?

List an Advantage to this choice:

List a Disadvantage to this choice:

2. A classmate of yours has been claiming that she's getting bullied constantly. You see a Snapchat of her going around on a classmate's phone that's hurtful and you want to stop it. You know who is circulating this, who confronts the perpetrator?

Who?

Why?

List an Advantage to this choice:

List a Disadvantage to this choice:

3. Your mom leaves you a list of chores to do including laundry, mowing the lawn, trimming, edging, cooking dinner, vacuuming and dusting the entire house. Who's doing the work?

Who?

Why?

List an Advantage to this choice:

List a Disadvantage to this choice:

4. You (and many other classmates) are sick of the cell phone policy at school. You all feel you should be able to use them whenever you want and it won't hurt your grades. You are ready to take up this issue with the administration. Who's meeting with the Principal?

Who?

Why?

List an Advantage to this choice:

List a Disadvantage to this choice:

5. You have a project in your Introduction to Business class that is worth 20% of your grade. It is based on some subjects you feel like you really understand, but a few you don't. The teacher said you can work in groups up to four, but the more people there are in your group, the more tasks you need to complete. Who are you working with?

Who?

Why?

List an Advantage to this choice:

List a Disadvantage to this choice:

6. You're trying to decide what classes you're going to take in high school. You think you're going to pursue a degree in Business eventually, but you don't know much about the course options at your school. Who's helping you pick your classes?

Who?

Why?

List an Advantage to this choice:

List a Disadvantage to this choice: