Investigating Jobs in the Healthcare Industry

Xello

If you haven't already done so this year, go to https://xello.world/wp-login.php and log in to your Xello account. If you were using Career Cruising in the past, you will notice that Xello has a much different look and feel to it! Follow the steps below to research a health care career:

1. If you haven't already, take the Matchmaker quiz to see how your interests align with available careers in health care. Click the "Getting Started" button and Launch Matchmaker.

2. Once you are done with the Matchmaker questions, select the following:
    a. Xello (upper left of screen)
    b. Explore Options - Careers
    c. More filters - scroll down to "Career Clusters" and select "Health Science"
    d. Select the button on the bottom of the screen with the number of career ("93 Careers")
    You'll see immediately which health care careers are a good career match for you or not, and you can click on any career and "Find out Why" to see how your Matchmaker answers aligned with the skills for that particular career.

3. Find a career that has a "Good" or "Excellent" match with your skills and interests.

4. Complete the notetaking guide on Page 2 for your chosen career.

5. Exit Slip - Once you are done with the notetaking guide, write a paragraph (at least 5 sentences) about whether or not you think you would enjoy this career and why.

Investigating Jobs in the Healthcare Industry

Investigating Jobs in the Healthcare Industry with Xello - Notetaking Guide

Fill in the notetaking guide with information on your chosen career.

Chosen Career:	Medical Lab Tech
Job Description - List 3 things a person with your career does as part of their job, including the hours worked on shift:	1. 2. 3.
Core Tasks - List 3 important tasks performed in this career:	1. 2. 3.
What is the amount of education or training necessary for this career?
What is the current job market in the state of Wisconsin?
What is the pay scale for this position?
What are the opportunities for advancement within this career?	